

February Family Activity
Due Tuesday, Feb. 27

The month of February brings about the topic of love. In I Corinthians, Paul teaches about love in chapter 13. As a family complete the activity for each section of chapter 13: 1-7.

Read I Corinthians 13:1-3. These verses can teach us about the importance of love. Write out a list of the gifts God says are “empty” without love.

Read I Corinthians 13:4-7. These verses teach us about the selfless characteristics of love. For each of the characteristics of love, list how love is described by filling in the blanks in the first column. (The NIV version was used for this assignment). In the second column, talk about a real way to live out how love is described. An example is given.
