

Miss Kelley's 4th Grade News

Week #17: January 8 - 12

The Headlines

4th Grade Mall

* Looking ahead at what's coming up with the Economics Project:

January 9 – 12: Work on poster advertising

January 16 – 19: Commercial (plan and film)

January 22 – 26: Store front display

January 29 – 31: final details, Mall on the 31st

* As a reminder, we will do a lot of planning and advertising in class, but please stay on top of the actual making of the goods/services. All production of the goods will be done at home. Students have had wonderful ideas! But many of them involve a decent amount of legwork; please help them stay on track with these. Last minute making will be really tough as they have to make enough goods to supply the school. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns at any point. The classroom excitement for the mall is contagious! I think you all will really love and be so proud of all the ideas this group has come up with 😊

Read Aloud Book for 3rd Quarter

* When we return from break, we will be reading aloud "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe." Please have this at school by the time we return from break (it can be brought in earlier and kept in their crate).

I hope everyone has a very merry Christmas and a wonderful break!! 😊
