Book Report and Reading

* Please come prepared to present your book report commercial on Tuesday. You may wear your outfit as long as it isn't distracting to others during the rest of the day ☺

 Please find, order, or borrow the book "Lunch Money" by Andrew Clements and bring it into school on Monday. We will begin reading it together as a class when we return from fall break.

 Two more book adventure books are due by October 12. Students should have read and tested a total of 4 books by October 12th. Remember that students must read 4 books every quarter. Unfortunately, I cannot "roll over" books from quarter to quarter. This school rule is in place to keep students reading all year long, and to encourage them to increase their reading level as they mature as readers.

Study Skills Tips

* Continue practicing math facts (especially multiplication, although continuing to pick up our speed and efficiency with addition and subtraction would also be a beneficial as we build on our multiplication and division).

* Students have enjoyed playing math games to help them practice these skills. Some games include: mental math, around the world, trash-ketball, math war. Here is an online resources game they can also use:
