4th Grade Shurley English Study Guide

Test on Thursday, October 31st

Things to Know:

- Be able to classify sentences
  - Label what the subject is (SN), Verb (V), Adverbs (ADV), Adjectives (ADJ), Article Adjectives (A), Preposition (P), and the Object of the Preposition (OP).
  - Label the type of sentence (D, IMP, INT, E) with the correct punctuation.
  - Divide the complete subject from the complete predicate. Underline the complete subject once and the complete predicate twice.
  - Label with SN, V, P1.
- Use a noun table to list the Noun, Job, Singular/Plural, Common/Proper.
- Be able to edit a sentence correctly that has missing punctuation, capitalization, or misspelled words.
- Be able to complete analogies.
- Be able to look at an underlined word in a sentence and tell what part of speech it is.

- Know the following vocabulary words (as well as their synonyms and antonyms):
  - annex: to add on to
    - syn: attach
    - ant: separate
  - ferocious: violently cruel
    - syn: savage
    - ant: harmless
  - legend: an unproven story handed down as historical fact
    - syn: tale
    - ant: truth

* Please remember to use your hardback book to help you review concepts and study. Please also use the Classroom Practice sheets to review.