Florida Notebooks have come home. The guide that came home is a suggestion. The notebook isn't due until November 11th. Please, don't wait until the last week to complete this. It is imperative your student starts as soon as they can. We will talk about this extensively in class, but the work is done at home. Please work with your student to budget time wisely. I am not asking them to do the extra reports at the back of the notebook. We will also be learning about our home state in class!

Spelling words this week have 2 alternative spellings. Please note below the 2 words I will accept a different spelling than what was in the book. We have discussed this in class as well.

Open House will be held in the courtyard October 20th from 9:00am-9:45am. We will have a 4th grade table where you can see what we have been up to in the classroom as well as some work we've done.

Cold Weather Clothes As our weather cools off, please remember that dress code remains red, white, or blue from the flag. If your student needs a light jacket or a coat, now is the time to search out those colors. Amazon, Target, Walmart and Old Navy are excellent places to get an affordable coat that follows the school dress code.
